United for Peace of Pierce County and The Fellowship of Reconciliation calls on the various cultures of Tacoma and Pierce County to represent their communities' longing for peace through music, dance, art and the spoken word.

Lay aside feelings of powerlessness in the face of our weaponry of mass destruction and the injustice that accompanies it. Celebrate with us the creative power of the human spirit. We will nourish our souls during these unquiet times. Please bring the beauty of your community and honor us with your presence.

Tacoma will be joining communities around the world on Feb. 15 to promote peace. Other cities participating include Bangkok, Rome, Oslo, Cairo, Paris, Berlin, Skopje, Athens, London, Helsinki, Glasgow, Antwerp, Manila, Belfast, Ramallah, Stockholm, Barcelona, Amsterdam, as well as New York City (where an enormous rally is being planned) and countless other cities in the United States.
